Capt. Gibbs Asked to Form Such a Military Company.

GUNS ARE ON THE WAY.

City Members of Philippine Volunteer
Batteries Request the Privilege of Reenlisting.

Capt. Gibbs has been approached by the city members of the Philippine volunteer batteries from Utah and requested to form a light battery of artillery as an arm of the National Guard service. A petition is now in circulation and is being signed by them and others, and it looks as if the plan will be perfected. It is said that the government has shipped to the State of Utah some new guns and that these weapons are now on the way here. If the battery is organized it will be in time to take the field places, and will have a sufficient number of members who are skilled in their manipulation to make the achievement of proficiency a matter of short time.

SHEEP INTERESTS.

Necessity for Some More Stringent Law Regarding Foreign Bands.

In talking Saturday of the sheep industry, Judge Standford said there was a necessity for more stringent legislation in this State respecting foreign bands coming into the State. In the southeast it is a very important question. That section is becoming more and more a sheep country, but the ranges are so over-run with bands from other States that the local owners are seriously damaged. Other States have protected themselves and Idaho remains the dumping ground. Wyoming has been especially successful in guarding against this invasion. That State has passed a law that is effective. The judge said he didn't know whether it was constitutional, but the penalties were so heavy that sheepmen did not care to run the risk of incurring them. He narrated the case of a man who shipped a band into Wyoming this year. When he unloaded, an inspector waited on him and told him what the penalty was. Coming in without a permit. Rather than contest the matter, he loaded the sheep, without letting them out of the pens, and brought them into Idaho—Boise Statesman.

BUSINESS COLLEGE JOURNAL

Information Just Off the Press.

The regular quarterly edition of the Salt Lake Business College Journal, established several years ago, is just coming off the "News" job press. The form of the publication has changed since its last appearance into booklet style. It is quite a comprehensive little volume of some forty pages of matter devoted to the interests, aims and work of the school. The cover is var-colored and pleasingly unique, being decorated by imitation oak stripes, while the contents are well arranged with marginal index headings reflecting the substance of each paragraph. In comparative freedom from errors, shows careful editing.

After calling attention to the necessity for business education and the advantages possessed by and the opportunities open to those who have a commercial training, the Journal discusses the different subjects taught in the school. Four courses are offered—commercial, shorthand, English and penmanship. Particular emphasis is laid on the institution's methods of teaching bookkeeping and shorthand.

Twelve thousand copies are being issued, making it the largest edition in point of numbers, as well as merit, put out by the college. Altogether the pamphlet will prove interesting reading to persons in search of the class of information such publications contain.

NEW SPRINKLING SYSTEM.

Board of Public Works Approves of Stand-Pipe Idea.

Bids for Work Called For, Which Will be Opened at Noon on Friday.

At a meeting of the board of public works, held last evening, the specifications for laying the stand-pipe system of street sprinkling, furnished by Engineer Kelsey, were approved, and Chairman Dooly, with Chairman Catling of the Council committee on sprinkling, were authorized to receive bids for the work up to noon Friday. Those bidding should bear in mind that the work includes laying the pipe, the masonry, back filling, etc. The plan and specifications can be seen by applying to J. M. Whitaker, clerk of the board of public works, whose office is in the basement of the city and county building.

Contractor P. J. Moran sent in a communication, giving the reasons for the delay in the arrival of the pipe, necessary to connect the new reservoir with the water system. Mr. Moran said he ordered the material by wire on June 27th, and it was shipped from Bessemer, Ala., on July 25th. He also produced correspondence tending to show that he had used every diligence to get the pipe here earlier. A portion of the pipe arrived today and the balance is expected tomorrow or the next day.

The city attorney, upon motion of Fabian, was instructed to prepare a form of contract that would make it obligatory upon contractors doing business with the board to give a bond for the performance of work within a specified time.

YOUNG BURGLAR GETS TWO YEARS

Ed Dalton, Before Judge Norrell,
Pleads Guilty and is Sentenced.

ANOTHER CHARGEDISMISS

Arraignment of Several Other Defendants, Among Whom is Willie Shogogue.

Ed Dalton, a young man of respectable appearance, appeared before Judge Norrell today on a charge of burglary. The youthful defendant pleaded guilty and requested immediate sentence. The court gave him two years in the State prison.

The prisoner's offense consisted of entering a bath room at Salutar on July 15th and helping himself to the belongings of one of the bathers.

Another information accused Dalton of burglarizing the residence of Gilbert G. McCollum at No. 27 Jefferson street on the night preceding the Salutar affair. Prosecutor Van Cott moved to dismiss the latter charge, and it was so ordered by the court and recorded on the minutes by Clerk Little.

TWO MORE ALLEGED BURGLARS.

Two other young fellows named James Wallace and A. S. Wishart were arraigned on an information accusing them of burglary. They pleaded not guilty. A companion named James A. Ferguson was arrested at the same time as the other two, but he was used as a witness by the State at the preliminary hearing had before Justice Timmony, and thus escaped prosecution. The defendants are charged with burglarizing the cigar store of T. C. Walters at No. 73 west Second street on the night of August 5th.

AN INFAMOUS CRIME.

Frank Billings stood up and pleaded not guilty to an information charging him with an infamous crime against nature. The prisoner's victim was a little boy named Stanley May. The offense occurred in a room at the Walker house on the night of July 31st.

SERIOUS CHARGE.

Otis D. Faulkner was arraigned on the charge of assault with intent, etc. He took until Thursday to plead. The offense complained of was committed on this court on the August 9th upon Pearl G. Gardner, a minor.

YOUTHFUL JACK SHEPARD.

William Shogogue, the eleven-year-old youngster, whom the police regard as a second edition of Jack Shepard, said: "I'm not guilty, mister," when asked for his plea to the charge of grand larceny. Will has been in the clasp of scrapes during the past eighteen months. His latest offense consisted of taking a coupon book and pocket knife from Frank D. Moses. This occurred on July 15th last, and the boy spent several days in the county jail. Several persons have recently interested themselves in the little fellow's behalf, with a view of having him sent to a sister in Idaho. Should the lad's friends succeed in getting him out of the charge he was arraigned upon today.

PRAYED FOR WRIT DENIED.

Justice McMaster Wins Out in the Review Proceedings.

The case of Will H. Kinnerley, by his guardian ad litem, H. S. Laney, vs. Alexander McMaster, justice of the peace of the Fifth precinct, came up before Judge Cherry yesterday afternoon on a petition for a writ of certiorari to review the proceedings in a suit wherein Kinnerley was defendant and S. W. Peck Jr. plaintiff. After taking the testimony of petitioner and Judge McMaster, and hearing the arguments of the attorneys on both sides, the court denied the application.

Peck recovered judgment for $35 against Kinnerley last spring, and the latter claimed he had been sued by the wrong name, and had never been served with a summons. His attorney, at a late date, moved to set aside the judgment and grant a new trial, but Justice McMaster overruled the motion, and the petition for a writ of certiorari followed. It was shown by Attorney I. A. Krebs, who represented Judge McMaster, that the petitioner's remedy laid in appeal, but he had neglected the opportunity afforded him in law by not perfecting the same within the statutory time.

ESTATE OF J. H. E. WEBSTER.

Widow Files Petition Asking That
J. W. Edmunds be Administrator.

Mattie Webster has petitioned the probate court to appoint J. W. Edmunds administrator of the estate of her deceased husband, J. H. E. Webster. The estate consists of partnership notes of the value of about $1,000 now in course of litigation. Recently Martin S. Lindsay, representing A. Milton Musser, a former partner of Webster and plaintiff in a suit involving title to the notes, petitioned the probate court to appoint him administrator.

Now that there is a contest Judge Hiles will at some future date set both petitions down for a hearing.

ATTACHMENT SUIT DISMISSED.

Compromise Effected in Case Auerbach Against John C. Willie.

A stipulation of settlement and dismissal of the attachment suit of S. H. Auerbach against John C. Willie was filed in the Third district court today. The dismissal was made at the cost of plaintiff, who is still remembered, ordered the defendant to recover the sum of $3,000 on account of goods taken by the defendant from plaintiff's dry goods store. Of this amount $1,500 was recovered from Zion's Savings Bank and Trust company, which Willie had there on deposit.

Quite a large amount of stolen goods was also recovered. Willie was sentenced to six months for petit larceny by Judge Timmony, which, with the others, formed the basis of settlement.

EVERILL DIVORCE SUIT.

Defendant Restrained from Disposing of Household Goods.

Ruth Everill, who recently filed an action against John Everill for the purpose of securing a divorce, presented a petition to Judge Cherry today, setting forth that she could not live at the house of the defendant on account of the cruel treatment towards her; also that the defendant was about to dispose of the household furniture and would do so unless restrained by an order of the court.

Judge Cherry signed a restraining order, which was served upon the defendant this afternoon enjoining him from removing the goods until the divorce

Notice.

On account of the large increase in business of our Salt Lake factories which demands our entire attention, we will sell our branch house, located at Pocatello, Idaho, consisting of large two story stone and brick building with basement, Soda Water, Beer Bottling and Vinegar factories.

This is an excellent opportunity for the right party, as the Fort Hall Reservation will shortly be opened up, which will make Pocatello the largest city in Idaho, and next to Salt Lake, the finest shipping point in the intermountain region; our factory is well located with excellent shipping facilities, the railroad tracks running past the doors; it will take some money to buy this property, so do not write unless you mean business. JORDAN WATER SUIT.

Default Judgment Against Ryan,
Gabbott and Taylor.

The default of Patrick Ryan, John Gabbott and William Taylor, defendants in the case of Salt Lake City et al vs. the Salt Lake City Water and Electric Power company, has been entered in the Third district court. The suit involves right to water in the Jordan river, and the parties against whom default is entered failed to answer the complaint filed by plaintiffs within the prescribed twenty days.

Estate of Ellen M. Bishop.

James Bishop filed a petition in the probate court today praying that letters of administration issue to him and John B. Reid in the estate of Ellen M. Bishop, deceased. Mrs. Bishop, who was the wife of petitioner, died in this city on July 2nd last, leaving an estate consisting wholly of real property, situated on west First North street, this city, of the probable value of $2,000. The heirs are the husband, three sons and a daughter. Deceased left no will. The petition will be heard Saturday, September 5th.

Probate Cases.

Judge Hiles will attend to some probate business tomorrow. Six cases only are on the calendar.

The Graham Case.

The bill of exceptions on appeal in the case of the State against John C. Graham, convicted some time ago of unlawful cohabitation, was settled and filed in the district court today.

PERSONAL.

Pres. W. J. Kerr of the Agricultural College is down from Logan.

Attorney F. K. Nebeker of Logan is visiting Salt Lake, to remain till near the end of the week.

E. H. Callister is in Millard county on livestock buying and selling, and will return here on Friday.

Noble Warren, lately the chief editorial writer on the Herald, has engaged in mining business.

G. F. Culmer is here from Chicago on a short visit to relatives and friends. Business is intermixed with this pleasure.

President Silver of the Y. M. C. A. here returned today from the east, where he has been for over a month past.

Manager Marsh of the Diamond Coal company has gone to Anaconda, Montana, headquarters of the company, on business.

Hon. James Andrus is up from St. George having arrived here this morning from the south. He is stopping at the Cullen hotel.

General Manager Campbell of the Union Light and Power company is at present on the coast. His visit is likely to be a protracted one.

Mrs. Chas. Kent of Ogden was a passenger from the Junction city this morning. Mrs. Kent is visiting her sister, Mrs. David H. Gill.

J. B. Graham Esq., editor of the Ploughman Bulletin, is in the city. He came down last night to attend a little business for his newly little journal.

Inspector and Mrs. James Small have been spending the summer in Salt Lake, and are now on her way home in Denver. They will remain in Denver for a few days, and then go to Canada to visit Mr. Small's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. John Reader and family, accompanied by Mrs. James H. Mease, will leave for Salt Lake City in the morning. Mrs. Reader will remain in the city coming winter to take care of the children while they are attending school—Vernal Express.

St. Anthony Teton Peak Judge J. A. Miner of Salt Lake was in the city several days recently. He is very much pleased with St. Anthony and the surroundings, and predicts a great future for the people here. He thinks this is about the finest farming and stock country he has seen for years.

Albert C. Morris is confined to his bed suffering from the result of bruises received while handling a horse. The injuries were received some time ago and it was thought that no serious consequence would accrue, but a turn for the worse came, and Mr. Morris is now unable to get out of bed. Nothing serious, however is anticipated.

Manager James Leary of the Union Stockyards, north of the city, said today that the prices now prevailing had practically shut off cattle shipments, and but little of that kind of live stock was moving of present. The shipment of sheep, however, is constantly increasing and this season, he says, will prove a record-breaker in the handling of this kind of stock.

Joe Fry Fined for Disturbing the Peace—Dick Keith Fined for Gambling—Court Notes.

City council met in regular session last evening and transacted the following business:

The waterworks resolution, authorizing the recorder to advertise for bids for $250,000 bonds, was again laid over to next meeting.

Miscellaneous claims and pay rolls amounting to $1,577.93 were ordered paid. The claim of Samuel H. Lewis of $54.75, was reduced to $39.30, and ordered paid.

Orson Hiser, chief of the fire department, represented that his department was in need of 1,250 feet of hose. Referred to the fire committee.

City Engineer A. F. Parker reported an estimate of the costs of Sewer District No. 5, $11,294 for seven blocks. He said further that there was imperative need of four blocks of sewer on 22nd street, Adams and Madison avenues, which would cost an additional $4,326, or a total for the eleven blocks of $15,620, or about $1.61 per front foot. Ordered filed.

The engineer also asked for the purchase of a document file at a cost of $25. Referred to the committee on finance.

James Clark and sixteen others asked the council to open Thirtieth street between Washington and Madison avenues. Referred to the committee on streets.

Andrew Christenson and 115 others asked the council to repair Second street, between Washington and the North Ogden ditch. Referred to the committee on streets.

The claims of Henry Hutton and T. Ruckman, $46 for watching the waters in Strong's and Waterfall canyons, and the salary of A. Peterson, poundkeeper, $20, were ordered paid, after which the council adjourned for two weeks.

WEBER STAKE ACADEMY.

List of Instructors and Courses of Study Offered.

The Weber Stake Academy has gotten out a very neat annual catalogue for the thirteenth academic year from 1900 to 1901. The school is to open on Monday, September 18, 1900, and to close for the school year on June 5, 1901. The faculty and instructors of the academy for the year will be: Louis F. Mench, D. B., principal, theology, pedagogy and German; John G. Lind, B. Sc., curator, Latin and general science; David Orman McKay, registrar, history and literature; William Z. Terry, B. Sc., mathematics and astronomy; J. L. Fairbanks, librarian, preparatory course and drawing; Jennette McKay, lady superintendent, and assistant instructor in normal training; Alfred Nelson, secretary, commercial course; Joseph A. Ballantyne, chorister, instructor in vocal music.

There are six different courses of study offered by the academy, viz:

Preparatory Course—Corresponding to seventh grade of the public schools.

Course in Phonography and Typewriting—Applicants to this course must have completed the studies of the preparatory course.

Commercial Course—This course is especially arranged to give a thorough training to those who wish to prepare for a successful business life. Applicants for this course must have completed the studies of the preparatory course.

Literary Course—A literary course is offered to those who desire to specialize in languages and literature, and who have to particular inclination to pursue the study of mathematics and science. Applicants for this course must have finished the preparatory course.

High School Course—This course is offered to those who desire to prepare themselves to enter the freshman class in colleges or to qualify themselves for the practical duties of life. Applicants for this course must have completed the preparatory course or its equivalent.

Normal Course—This course offers a thorough three years' and a four years' normal course which cover all those subjects required by the State law as a qualification for a State certificate. Applicants for this course must have completed the preparatory course or its equivalent.

The academy is in an excellent condition; it has grown in favor with the people since the commencement, because of the able manner in which it has been conducted.

BEFORE JUDGE HALL.

Joe Fry was given a hearing on the charge of disturbing the peace and resisting an officer and using abusive language. He was arrested on Saturday evening by Captain Browning in a saloon on 24th street, where he was disturbing the peace. At the police station he was very abusive, and refused to be placed in a cell. The charges were proven against him and a sentence of 90 days or $50 was given. Later in the day the mayor reduced the fine to $30, and his friends are trying to raise the amount.

Dick Keith, Vincent Washington, William Jackson, colored, and J. C. Hanson, white, were brought before his honor, charged with gambling. Each plead not guilty, but their own testimony showed that they had been playing poker at Dick Keith's place, and charged with the same. Dick Keith was charged and the case against the other three was dismissed on motion of City Attorney MacMillan. Keith was fined $30.

One ordinance violator was deposited $2.50.
